STAY ON TOP OF
WHAT'S HAPPENING
THIS MONTH.

SUNDAY

Last day to be in the red with the Singapore Heart Foundation's Go Red For Women online auction of 10 little red dresses by Singapore's designers to raise funds for heart awareness. Put your money behind your stand. www.heart.org.sg

MONDAY

Perhaps Mr President should say "happy birthday" in honour of American icon, Marilyn Monroe, who was born today back in 1962. Incidentally, she shares the big day with Sesame Street's Oscar the Grouch.

TUESDAY

WEDNESDAY

Part of the Singapore Arts Festival, The Crab Flower Club is a surreal and lyrical portrayal of the five daughters of a Qing household, directed by Goh Boon Teck of Toy Factory Productions. Till 5 June, Drama Centre Theatre. www.singaporeartsfest.com

THURSDAY

FRIDAY

Green Generation Concert celebrates conservation in commemoration of World Environment Day, with a performance by Stomp. 6.30pm, Symphony Stage, Singapore Botanic Gardens.

SATURDAY

Drop the Louboutins today. In fact, don't even lace up those runners when you join the Bare Your Sole 2009 7km barefoot walk-run in aid of Revolving Fund For Humanity, which benefits children living in poverty around the region. 7am, Pasir Ris Park. www.habitat.org.sg/bys09

It's Fathers' Day. Bring Pops out, treat him nice, and don't say thank-you. 'Nuff said. And if he still wants a present, there's the HTC Touch Diamond 2.

26

It's a sweltering month, so there's no better time to re-focus on the precious resource of water and how to ensure its sustainability. Singapore International Water Week may be a trade and industry event, but it's a reminder to everyone to make an effort to save some of it, this week at least! www.waterweek.sg
