First and largest night skate in Singapore

Ezyhealth City Skate 2009 was successfully launched last 15 May at the *SCAPE Youth Centre. Jason Lim, the project leader of Ezyhealth City Skate 2009, presented the route and safety measures for skaters. The launch was concluded with a high-energy exhibition of skaters.

Organised by Ezyhealth Holdings Pte Ltd and held in conjunction with the Qualities of Life event, Ezyhealth City Skate 2009 is going to be the first and largest mass participation night skate in Singapore. On midnight of 25 July, join other skaters as they cruise down Orchard Road, marking Singapore as one of the skating destinations in the world.

For those who do not know how to skate but would like to participate in this historic event, qualified instructors from Skateline will give skate lessons at Bishan or East Coast Parks on the weekends of June to the actual event. The lessons are available free for the first 200 registered skaters who sign up for the lessons. Log on to www.ezyhealthcityskate.com for more information.

Mastercard goes red for women

MasterCard shows their support to the Singapore Heart Foundation's call to raise heart disease awareness among women by launching Go Red For Women by MasterCard.

This initiative will showcase ten rising fashion designers from Singapore, the Philippines, Malaysia, Indonesia and Thailand who will each present a red dress to be auctioned for the cause. Designers from trendy brands such as ELOHIM, Gian Romano, hansel, Heidi's Secret, KOOPS, nicholas, Nikicio, Nurita Harith, reckless Ericka and Stella Rissa will get their creative geniuses working around the theme "Inspiration & Innovation".

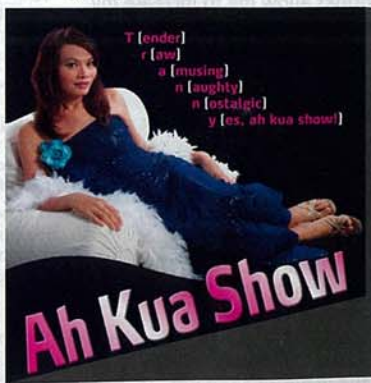

Vernon Kang, CEO of the Singapore Heart Foundation, said: "The Go Red For Women campaign, symbolised by the little red dress, is an important platform for us to bring home the message of heart health to women in Singapore. Our collaboration with MasterCard will enable us to get our message across through an avenue that is close to women's hearts – fashion."

MasterCard cardholders can view and bid for their favorite red dress. Dresses by the overseas designers will be on display at St Regis while Isetan Scotts will put on show those by the local designers.
